

Amateur Winemakers of Nebraska

October 2014

Meeting Announcement: Halloween Costume Party

WHEN:: Friday, October 31, 2014
Begins at 6 PM

WHERE: Junto Winery
1356 182nd St
Seward, NE 68434

Join us for a Costume Halloween Party at the new Winery, Junto in Seward, NE

They opened this past May and have a great vineyard and superb tasting room where the meeting and costume party will take place. Best male and female costumes will win the costume contest. Costumes are optional.
Please RSVP by replying to this email.

Directions: They are about 3 miles east of Seward just off Hwy 34 to the south on a dirt road that is well marked.

Mead Contest: We have at least 5 teams of members signed up for the mead/melomel wine making contest, Thus far the teams are headed by Al Vybrial, Jim Skinner, Randy Amundson, Paul Payton and Diane Wagner.

Future Meetings: The steering committee (Bart & Nancy H, Jim & Karen S, John & Tammy L and Chuck & Rhonda B) recently met and came up with the following tentative schedule of Wine club meetings.

Nov. (no meeting)

December 12 7 PM Christmas party at Rhonda and Chuck Berans in Lincoln.

January Go back to Meiers CORK AND BOTTLE for an evening of wine and food pairing like we did two years ago.

February 13 Valentines celebration @ Deer Springs Winery

March Amateur wine makers quiz and contest

April: Mead meeting and contest. Which team made the best mead?

May: Murder Mystery

June: Bus tour. Where should we go?

Please shop for your winemaking needs at Kirk's Brew in Lincoln. Club membership entitles you to a 10% discount