

Amateur Wine Makers of Nebraska

Our Next Meeting is this Saturday, February 4th

Randy & Roma will be our hosts at 4:00 on the 4th. They live at 7101 S. 134th St., Walton, NE. We will kick-off our meeting with a round table discussion about wine making, so bring you problems, questions, suggestions, experiences (good or bad) with you regarding your wine making. We learn a lot from each other.

Please bring an appetizer and a bottle of wine to share. Unfortunately, I don't think we'll have the spring-like weather, but we'll be nice and cozy inside.

SAVE THE DATE – Saturday, March 25th

Ed and Glennis have offered their beautiful home for our next event. Ed has had a few kits and is ready to start his first wine making experience. We are going to demonstrate how to get started from scratch with his kit(s). It's a great way to start and get you on your way to being a great winemaker!

More details will be coming. We are looking at going to Beatrice for some wine tastings after getting Ed's kits going. We'll see how things go. If we don't make it that day, we'll make sure and get there soon.

If you are have anything you'd like to share with the rest of us, please just let us know. We'd love to hear from you.

Please let the Jim Skinner (jmskms52@gmail.com), Chuck Berens (crbvikings@windstream.net) or the John Lange (JTLange@windstream.net) know if you have any questions about any of this or if you have suggestions for future meetings. We are very flexible on what we do.
